About American Cinematheque

The American Cinematheque, established in 1981, is a non-profit, viewer-supported film exhibition and cultural organization dedicated to the celebration of the Moving Picture in all of its forms. The Cinematheque presents almost daily film and video programs which range from American and World classics to the outer frontiers of the art form. Public programs are presented at Hollywood Boulevard's 1922 Egyptian Theatre, which the Cinematheque owns and operates. In 2005 the Cinematheque opened a Santa Monica branch at the 1940 Aero Theatre on Montana Avenue. Exhibition of rare works and special prints within our series, combined with fascinating post-screening discussions with the filmmakers who created the work, are Cinematheque traditions that keep audiences coming back for once-in-a-lifetime cinema experiences. Corrinne Mann, Mann Productions, is the Event Producer for the annual award presentation.
